Business and customs officials are against the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railway Company to collect payment on notes amounting to a suit brought in the New Jersey Court of Chancery to restrain the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Powder Company from reducing its capital stock, the special meeting of stockholders of the company. Called for to-day at Hoboken to act on the proposition, had to be postponed. If no injunction is issued after the hearing on June 13 the meeting will be held on June 13. The reduction in capital stock has been planned to make a saving in taxes and other such charges amounting to about $20,000 a year.

The suit was filed at Newark, N. J., on June 2, the complainants being Francis S. Hoyt, Georgianna H. Swords and Elizabeth H. Day of Morristown, N. J. and Ida M. Brown and Jennie P. Platt suit brought in the New Jersey Court
